3.2 Maximum Shareholding

Subject to Rule 3.4(b), A person must not hold a number of Shares which, when aggregated with the Shares held by all Associates of that person, exceeds the Shareholding Limit.

3.3 Restriction on Share acquisition

Subject to Rule 3.4(b), A person must not acquire any Shares if, as a result of that acquisition, Rule 3.2 would be breached.

3.4 Directors not to issue Shares except under Exempt Transaction

(a) Subject to Rule 3.4(b), The Directors must not issue Shares or other securities convertible into Shares if, as a result of that issue of Shares or the conversion of the securities issued, a person would breach Rule 3.2.

(b) Rules 3.2, 3.3 and 3.4(a) do not prevent:

(i) the Directors from issuing Shares under an Exempt Transaction after the end of the First Period; or

(ii) a person from acquiring Shares as a result of an issue of Shares to them pursuant to Rule 3.4(b)(i).

3.5 Adjustment of Shareholding Limit upon issue of Shares under Exempt Transaction¹

(a) If, after the First Period:

(i) the Directors issue Shares under an Exempt Transaction (“the Issue”); and

(ii) as a result of the Issue, a person (“Affected Person”) would hold a number of Shares which, when aggregated with the Shares held by all Associates of the Affected Person, would exceed the Shareholding Limit in force immediately before the Issue, then the Shareholding Limit will be automatically changed, with effect from the time of the Issue, in accordance with this Rule to a percentage (“New Percentage”) calculated according to the formula, $(A \div B) \times 100$, and rounded up to the nearest half per cent, where:

A = the aggregate number of Shares held by the Affected Person and their Associates immediately following the Issue, or if there is more than one Affected Person, the highest aggregate number of Shares held by an Affected Person and their Associates immediately following the Issue; and

B = the total number of Shares on issue immediately following the Issue.

¹ For example, if, in the Second Period, the Company makes a takeover bid for another company and offers Shares as consideration under the takeover bid, the Shareholding Limit at that time is 10% and there is only one Affected Person who will, together with its Associates, hold:

- 11.2% of the Shares as a result of the Affected Person accepting the Company’s offer under the takeover bid, then the New Percentage will be 11.5% (being 11.2% rounded up to the nearest half per cent) and the Shareholding Limit will increase to 11.5% for the rest of the Second Period (unless the Shareholding Limit is increased again in accordance with Rule 3.5); or
- 15.7% of the Shares as a result of the Affected Person accepting the Company’s offer under the takeover bid, then the New Percentage will be 16% (being 15.7% rounded up to the nearest half per cent) and the Shareholding Limit will increase to 16% for the rest of the Second Period and the Third Period (unless the Shareholding Limit is increased again in accordance with Rule 3.5).

(b) The Shareholding Limit may be changed under this Rule in the Second Period or the Third Period (or both) on more than one occasion.

(c) If the Shareholding Limit is changed under this Rule:

(i) during the Second Period:

(A) the percentage constituting the Second Period Ceiling will change to become the New Percentage; and

(B) if the New Percentage is more than 15%, the percentage constituting the Third Period Ceiling will also change to be the New Percentage.

(ii) during the Third Period, the percentage constituting the Third Period Ceiling will change to be the New Percentage.

(d) The Company will notify ASX of any change to the Shareholding Limit under this Rule 3.5.

3.53.6 Consequences of breach

If Rule 3.2 is breached as a result of Shares held by a person:

- (a) the Directors may identify those Shares that are held in excess of the Shareholding Limit in breach of Rule 3.2 (“the Excess Shares”);
- (b) all rights to vote and receive dividends on the Excess Shares are suspended while the breach of ~~clause Rule~~ 3.2 continues; and
- (c) the Directors may require the disposal of all or any of the Excess Shares in accordance with Rule 3.~~87~~.

3.63.7 Disclosure of Shareholdings

- (a) The Company may give a Primary Notice to any Member.
- (b) Within 5 Business Days of receipt of a Primary Notice, the Member must provide to the Company a written statement setting out the information required by the Primary Notice.
- (c) Where the Company receives (either in response to a Primary Notice or a Secondary Notice) information that:
 - (i) another person has a relevant interest in any Shares; or
 - (ii) another person has given relevant instructions in relation to any Shares,the Company may give to that other person a Secondary Notice in relation to those Shares.
- (d) Within 5 Business Days of receipt of a Secondary Notice, the recipient must provide to the Company a written statement setting out the information required by the Secondary Notice.
- (e) The Company may at any time withdraw a Primary Notice or Secondary Notice.

3.73.8 Disposal of Excess Shares

- (a) If the Directors are of the opinion that Rule 3.2 is breached as a result of Excess Shares held by a person, the Directors may by a written transfer notice (“transfer notice”) to a Member who is the registered holder of Excess Shares, require that Member to dispose of a number of the Excess Shares to remedy that breach. The number of Shares required to be disposed of will be specified in the transfer notice.
- (b) If the requirements of the transfer notice are not complied with by the Member within 28 days of the transfer notice, the Directors may:
 - (i) sell the number of Excess Shares specified in the transfer notice (or any lesser number of those Excess Shares) in such manner and on such terms as the Directors in their absolute discretion determine;
 - (ii) do all things necessary to sell those Excess Shares including signing or authorising a transfer of those Shares.
- (c) The Members appoint each of the Directors as their several attorneys with power to sell Shares in accordance with this Rule and undertake to do all things necessary to give effect to such sale.
- (d) The Company may deduct the costs associated with a sale of Shares under this Rule from the proceeds of the sale. The Company will then pay the remaining balance of the proceeds of sale to the Member by cheque posted to the address of the Member in the Register.

3.83.9 Associated rights of Company

- (a) At any meeting of Members:
 - (i) a ruling by the chairperson of that meeting that a Member does not have a right to vote in respect of Excess Shares under Rule 3.65(b) will be final and bind the Member concerned; and
 - (ii) no resolution will be invalid by reason only that it is subsequently determined that a Member voted on that resolution when that Member did not have a right to vote under Rule 3.65(b).
- (b) A Member who is paid a dividend or other distribution to which the Member is not entitled under Rule 3.65(b), must refund that dividend or distribution to the Company promptly upon receipt of written notice from the Company requiring the amount to be refunded. The Company has a first and paramount lien on any Excess Shares on which the dividend or distribution was paid and may enforce that lien in the manner specified in this Constitution as if the amount repayable to the Company were an amount unpaid on those Shares.

3.93.10 Review date

- (a) The Company must seek the approval of Members, by ordinary resolution, to the continuation of the Shareholding Limit no later than the fifth anniversary of the Listing Date.
- (b) If the continuation of the Shareholding Limit is approved by Members under Rule 3.109(a), the Shareholding Limit will automatically ~~become increase to~~ the Third ~~Period~~15% Ceiling. The Shareholding Limit will ~~be remain~~ at the ~~Third Period~~15% Ceiling until the tenth anniversary of the Listing Date, at which time the provisions of Rule 3 will cease to apply.

- (c) If the continuation of a Shareholding Limit is not approved by Members under Rule 3.109(a) the Shareholding Limit and the provisions of Rule 3 will cease to apply on the fifth anniversary of the Listing Date.

3.103.11 Removal of Shareholding Limit

The Shareholding Limit and the provisions of Rule 3 will cease to apply on the earlier of:

- (d) A call is to be taken as having been made when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed.
- (e) The Directors may revoke a call.
- (f) The non-receipt of a notice of a call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a call to, any Member does not invalidate the call.
- (g) If a sum called in respect of a Share is not paid in full by the day appointed for payment of the sum, the person from whom the sum is due must pay:
 - (i) interest on so much of the sum as is unpaid from time to time, from the date appointed for payment of the sum to the date of actual payment, at a rate determined under Rule 5.9; and
 - (ii) any costs, expenses or damages incurred by the Company in relation to the non-payment or late payment of the sum.
- (h) Any sum unpaid on a Share that, by the terms of issue of the Share, becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date:
 - (i) is to be treated for the purposes of this Constitution as if that sum was payable pursuant to a call duly made and notified; and
 - (ii) must be paid on the date on which it is payable under the terms of issue of the Share.
- (i) The Directors may, to the extent permitted by law, waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the Company under the terms of issue of a Share or under this Rule 5.1.

5.2 Proceedings for recovery of calls

- (a) In an action or other proceedings for the recovery of a call, or interest or costs or expenses incurred in relation to the non-payment or late payment of a call, proof that:
- (i) the name of the defendant is entered in the Register as the holder or one (1) of the holders of the Shares in respect of which the call is claimed;
 - (ii) the resolution making the call is recorded in the minute book; and
 - (iii) notice of the call was given to the defendant in accordance with this Constitution, is conclusive evidence of the debt and it is not necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made the call or any other matter.

- (b) In Rule 5.2(a), “defendant” includes a person against whom a set-off or counter-claim is alleged by the Company and “action or other proceedings for the recovery of a call” is to be construed accordingly.

5.3 Payments in advance of calls

- (a) The Directors may accept from a Member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a Share although no part of that amount has been called.
- (b) The Directors may authorise payment by the Company of interest upon the whole or any part of an amount accepted under Rule 5.3(a), until the amount becomes payable, at a rate agreed between the Directors and the Member paying the amount (but which must not exceed six percent (6%) per annum unless approved by the Directors).
- (c) The Directors may repay to a Member all or any of the amount accepted under Rule 5.3(a).

5.4 Forfeiture of partly paid Shares

- (a) If a Member fails to pay the whole of a call or instalment of a call by the time appointed for payment of the call or instalment, the Directors may serve a notice on that Member:
- (i) requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest that has accrued and all costs, expenses or damages that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of the non-payment or late payment of the call or instalment;
 - (ii) naming a further day (at least fourteen (14) days after the date of service of the notice) by which, and a place at which, the amount payable under Rule 5.4(a)(i) is to be paid; and
 - (iii) stating that, in the event of non-payment of the whole of the amount payable under Rule 5.4(a)(i) by the time and at the place named, the Shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
- (b) If the requirements of a notice served under Rule 5.4(a) are not complied with, the Directors may by resolution forfeit any Shares in respect of which the notice was given at any time after the day named in the notice and before the payment required by the notice is made.

- (c) A forfeiture under Rule 5.4(b) will include all dividends, interest and other money payable by the Company in respect of the forfeited Shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
- (d) Where Shares have been forfeited:
 - (i) notice of the resolution passed pursuant to Rule 5.4(b) must be given to the Member in whose name the Shares stood immediately before the forfeiture; and
 - (ii) an entry of the forfeiture, with the date, must be made in the Register.
- (e) Failure to give the notice or to make the entry required under Rule 5.4(d) does not invalidate the forfeiture.
- (f) A forfeited Share becomes the property of the Company and the Directors may, subject to this Constitution, sell, reissue or otherwise dispose of the Shares in such manner as they think fit and, in the case of reissue or other disposal, with or without any money paid on the Shares by any former holder being credited as paid up.
- (g) A person whose Shares have been forfeited ceases to be a Member in respect of the forfeited Shares, but remains liable to pay, and must immediately pay, to the Company:
 - (i) all calls, instalments, interest, costs, expenses and damages owing in respect of the Shares at the time of the forfeiture; and
 - (ii) interest on so much of the amount payable under Rule 5.4(g)(i) as is unpaid from time to time, from the date of the forfeiture to the date of actual payment, at a rate determined under Rule 5.9.
- (h) Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the forfeiture of a Share extinguishes all interest in, and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of, the forfeited Share and all other rights incident to the Share.
- (i) The Directors may:
 - (i) exempt a Share from all or any part of this Rule 5.4;
 - (ii) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the Company under this Rule 5.4; and
 - (iii) before a forfeited Share has been sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such conditions as they think fit.

5.5 Lien on Shares

- (a) The Company has a first and paramount lien on:
 - (i) each partly paid Share for all unpaid calls and instalments due in respect of that Share; and
 - (ii) each Share for such amounts (if any) as the Company may be called upon by law to pay (and has paid) in respect of that Share.

- (b) The Company's lien on a Share extends to all dividends payable in respect of the Share and to the proceeds of sale of the Share.
- (c) The Directors may sell any Shares on which the Company has a lien in such manner, subject to this Constitution as they think fit where:
 - (i) an amount in respect of which a lien exists under this Rule 5.5 is presently payable; and
 - (ii) the Company has, not less than fourteen (14) days before the date of the sale, given to the registered holder of the Shares a notice in writing setting out, and demanding payment of, such amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and stating that, upon failure to make payment of the sum demanded within the time stipulated, the Shares will be sold.
- (d) Where the highest offer received by the Directors is less than the amount paid up on Shares to be sold, the Directors shall, before accepting the offer, notify the Member of the receipt of such offer and the amount of the offer, and of the Directors' intention to accept the offer at the expiration of fourteen (14) days, if no payment is made before then to the Company of all moneys in respect of which the charge exists.
- (e) From the proceeds of any such sale the Company may deduct the expenses, if any, associated with the sale and may apply the balance to reduce the liability of the Member. However, if a surplus remains after such deduction the surplus shall be payable to the Member whose Shares were sold.
- (f) For giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise a person to transfer the Shares sold to the purchaser of them.
- (g) Registration by the Company of a transfer of Shares on which the Company has a lien without giving to the transferee notice of its claim releases the Company's lien in so far as it relates to sums owing by the transferor or any predecessor in title.
- (h) The Directors may:
 - (i) exempt a Share from all or any part of this Rule 5.5; and
 - (ii) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the Company under this Rule 5.5.

5.6 Surrender of Shares

- (a) The Directors may accept a surrender of a Share by way of compromise of any claim as to whether or not that Share has been validly issued or in any other case where the surrender is within the powers of the Company.
- (b) Any Share so surrendered may be sold, reissued or otherwise disposed in the same manner as a forfeited Share under Rule 5.4.

5.7 Indemnity for payments by the Company

If the Company becomes liable under any law to make any payment:

- (a) in respect of Shares held solely or jointly by a Member;

- (b) in respect of a transfer or transmission of Shares by a Member;
- (c) in respect of dividends, bonuses or other money due or payable or which may become due and payable to a Member; or
- (d) otherwise for or on account of or in respect of a Member,

whether as a consequence of:

- (e) the death of that Member;
- (f) the non-payment of any income tax, capital gains tax, wealth tax or other tax by that Member or the legal personal representative of that Member;
- (g) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by that Member or the legal personal representative of that Member; or
- (h) any other act or thing, then, in addition to any right or remedy that law may confer on the Company:

- (i) the Member or, if the Member is dead, the Member's legal personal representative must:
 - (i) fully indemnify the Company against that liability;
 - (ii) reimburse the Company for any payment made under or as a consequence of that law immediately on demand by the Company; and
 - (iii) pay interest on so much of the amount payable to the Company under Rule 5.7(i)(ii) as is unpaid from time to time, from the date the Company makes a payment under that law until the date the Company is reimbursed in full for that payment under Rule 5.7(i)(ii), at a rate determined under Rule 5.9.
- (j) The Directors may:
 - (i) exempt a Share from all or any part of this Rule 5.7; and
 - (ii) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the Company under this Rule 5.7.

5.8 General provisions applicable to a disposal of Shares under this Constitution

- (a) A reference in this Rule 5.8 to a "disposal of Shares under this Constitution" is a reference to:
 - (i) any sale, reissue or other disposal of a forfeited Share under Rule 5.4 or a surrendered Share under Rule 5.6; and
 - (ii) any sale of a Share on which the Company has a lien under Rule 5.5.
- (b) Where any Shares are "disposed of under this Constitution", the Directors may:
 - (i) receive the purchase money or consideration given for the Shares on the disposal;

- (ii) effect a transfer of the Shares and execute, or appoint a person to execute, on behalf of the former holder an instrument of transfer of the Shares or any other instrument for the purpose of giving effect to the disposal; and
 - (iii) register as the holder of the Shares the person to whom the Shares have been “disposed of under this Constitution”.
- (c) A person to whom Shares are “disposed of under this Constitution” is not bound to see to the regularity or validity of, or to the application of the purchase money or consideration on, the disposal and the title of that person to the Shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the forfeiture or surrender of the Shares or the exercise of the Company’s lien on the Shares (as the case may be).
- (d) The remedy of any person aggrieved by a “disposal of Shares under this Constitution” is limited to damages only and is against the Company exclusively.
- (e) The proceeds of a “disposal of Shares under this Constitution” must be applied in the payment of:
- (i) the expenses of the disposal; and then
 - (ii) all money presently payable by the former holder whose Shares have been “disposed of under this Constitution”; and then
 - (iii) the balance (if any) must be paid (subject to any lien that exists under Rule 5.5 in respect of money not presently payable) to the former holder on the former holder delivering to the Company the certificate for the Shares that have been “disposed of under this Constitution” or such other proof of title as the Directors may accept.
- (f) A statement in writing signed by a Director or secretary of the Company to the effect that a Share in the Company has been:
- (i) duly forfeited under Rule 5.4;
 - (ii) duly sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of under Rule 5.4 or Rule 5.6 of this Constitution; or
 - (iii) duly sold under Rule 5.5,
- on a date stated in the statement is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the statement as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the Share and of the right of the Company to forfeit, sell, reissue or otherwise “dispose of the Share under this Constitution”.

5.9 Interest payable by Member

- (a) For the purposes of Rules 5.1(g)(i), 5.4(g)(ii) and 5.7(i)(iii), the rate of interest payable to the Company is:
- (i) if the Directors have fixed a rate, the rate so fixed; or
 - (ii) in any other case, six percent (6%) per annum.

- (b) Interest payable under Rules 5.1(g)(i), 5.4(g)(ii) and 5.7(i)(iii) accrues daily and may be capitalised monthly or at such other intervals as the Directors think fit.

6. TRANSFER OF SHARES

6.1 Forms of instrument of transfer

- (a) as provided by the Operating Rules if applicable; or
- (b) by any other method of transfer which is required or permitted by the Corporations Act and ASX.

6.2 Execution and delivery of transfer

If a duly completed instrument of transfer:

- (a) is used to transfer a Share in accordance with Rule 6.1(b); and
- (b) is left for registration at the share registry of the Company, accompanied by any information that the Directors properly require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, the Company must, subject to the powers vested in the Directors by this Constitution, register the transferee as the holder of the Share.

6.3 Effect of registration

Except as provided by any applicable Operating Rules, a transferor of a Share remains the holder of the Share until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the Share.

6.4 Company to register forms without charge

The Company must register all registrable transfer forms, split certificates, renunciations and transfers, issue certificates and transmission receipts and mark or note transfer forms without imposing a charge except where a charge is permitted by the Listing Rules.

6.5 Power to refuse to register

If permitted by the Listing Rules the Directors may:

- (b) refuse to register a transfer of Shares to which paragraph (a) does not apply.

6.6 Obligation to refuse to register

If a transfer of Shares is in breach of the Listing Rules or a Restriction Agreement, the Directors shall:

- (a) request any applicable CS Facility Operator to apply a holding lock to prevent transfer of Shares from being registered on the CS Facility's sub-register; or

- (b) in respect of Shares to which paragraph (a) does not apply, refuse to register any transfer of the Shares.

6.7 Written notice to security holder of holding lock or refusal

If in the exercise of their rights under Rules 6.5 and 6.6, the Directors request application of a holding lock to prevent a transfer of Shares or refuse to register a transfer of Shares, they must give written notice of the request or refusal to the holder of the Shares, the transferee and the broker lodging the transfer, if any. Failure to give such notice does not invalidate the decision of Directors.

6.8 Company to retain instrument of transfer

The Company must retain every instrument of transfer which is registered for such period as is required by any applicable law.

6.9 Return of instrument of transfer

If the Directors refuse registration of a transfer and, within 12 months of the giving of notice of the refusal to register, the person who deposited the instrument demands for it to be returned, the instrument of transfer must be returned to that person unless there has been an allegation of fraud concerning the transfer or the transaction to which it relates.

6.10 Suspension of registration

The Directors may suspend registration of transfers of Shares at the times and for the periods they determine. The periods of suspension must not exceed 30 days in any one (1) calendar year. Closure of the register can only be effected in accordance with the Listing Rules and the Operating Rules.

7. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- (b) the personal representative is entitled, whether or not registered as the holder of the Shares, to the same rights as the Member.

On receiving an election under paragraph (a)(i), the Company must register the personal representative as the holder of the Shares. A transfer under paragraph (a)(ii) is subject to the Rules that apply to transfers generally.

7.4 Death of joint owner

If a Member, who holds shares jointly, dies, the Company will recognise only the survivor(s) as being entitled to the Member's interest in the Shares. The estate of the Member is not released from any liability in respect of the Shares.

7.5 Transmission of shares on bankruptcy

- (c) A person's attendance at a general meeting:
 - (i) waives any objection that person may have to a failure to give notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of the meeting unless the person at the beginning of the meeting objects to the holding of the meeting; and
 - (ii) waives any objection that person may have to the consideration of a particular matter at the meeting which is not within the business referred to in the notice of the meeting, unless the person objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

until such time as the chairperson or deputy chairperson of the Board attends and is willing to act.

8.6 Conduct of general meetings

- (a) The chairperson of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in his or her opinion necessary or desirable for:
 - (i) proper and orderly debate or discussion, including limiting the time that a person present may speak on a motion or other item of business before the meeting; and
 - (ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, including the appointment of scrutineers.
- (b) The chairperson of a general meeting may at any time he or she considers it necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting:
 - (i) terminate debate or discussion on any business, question, motion or resolution being considered by the meeting and require the business, question, motion or resolution to be put to a vote; or

8.7 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Except in the case of any resolution which as a matter of law requires a special majority, questions arising at a general meeting will be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Members present at the meeting and entitled to vote and any such decision is a decision of the Company in general meeting for all purposes.
- (b) If there is an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution the chairperson of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any votes he or she has as a Member.

 - (ii) by at least five (5) Members entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (iii) by the holder or holders of not less than five percent (5%) of the total number of Shares.
- (d) A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- (e) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairperson of a general meeting that a resolution has been carried, carried by a particular majority or lost, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (f) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

- (g) A poll demanded at a general meeting on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately.
- (h) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

- (d) The parent or guardian of an infant Member may vote at any general meeting upon such evidence being produced of the relationship or of the appointment of the guardian as the Directors may require and any vote so tendered by a parent or guardian of an infant Member must be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the infant Member.
- (e) Where a Member holds a Share upon which any call or other sum of money payable to the Company has not been duly paid the Member has no right to vote in respect of that Share.
- (f) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:

 - (iii) to speak to any proposed resolution on which the proxy, attorney or Representative may vote;
 - (iv) to demand or join in demanding a poll on any resolution on which the proxy, attorney or Representative may vote;
 - (v) even though the instrument may refer to specific resolutions and may direct the proxy, attorney or Representative how to vote on those resolutions:
 - (A) to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - (B) to vote on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chairperson, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting; and
 - (C) to act generally at the meeting; and
 - (vi) even though the instrument may refer to a specific meeting to be held at a specified time or venue, where the meeting is rescheduled or adjourned to another time or changed to another venue, to attend and vote at the re-scheduled or adjourned meeting or at the new venue.
- (e) The chairperson of a general meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy, attorney or Representative to establish to the satisfaction of the chairperson that the person has been validly appointed as a proxy, attorney or Representative and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the person may be excluded from attending or voting at the meeting.
- (f) If a Member appoints two (2) proxies and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the Member's votes that each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.
- (g) An instrument appointing a proxy or attorney may direct the manner in which the proxy or attorney is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument so provides, the proxy or attorney is not entitled to vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the instrument. If it does so direct:
 - (i) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way; and

- (ii) if the proxy is the chairperson – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way; and
- (iii) if the proxy is not the chairperson – the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

This Rule does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes they hold as a Member.

- (h) An instrument appointing a proxy or attorney need not be in any particular form provided it is in writing, legally valid and:
 - (i) in the case of a natural person, signed by the appointer;
 - (ii) in the case of a body corporate, executed by the appointer; or
 - (iii) in either case, signed by the appointer's attorney.
- (i) An instrument of proxy is not invalid or ineffective merely if any or all of the following applies:
 - (i) it does not contain the address of the Member giving it;
 - (ii) it does not contain the address of the person appointed by it;
 - (iii) it is not dated (in this case it will be taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company); and
 - (iv) it does not contain a direction to the appointee as to how to vote on any or all items of business.
- (j) The appointment of a proxy or attorney for a general meeting is not effective unless the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney, and the original or an attested copy of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed, are received by the Company at least 48 hours before the general meeting. The Company receives a document under this Rule when the document is received at the Company's registered office, a fax number at the Company's registered office or at such other place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting. If a general meeting has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the Company before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.
- (k) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney is valid despite:
 - (i) a Transmission Event occurring in relation to the appointer; or
 - (ii) the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, if no notice in writing of the Transmission Event or revocation has been received by the Company by the time and at one of the places at which the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is required to be deposited under Rule 8.9(j).

- (l) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney is valid despite the transfer of the Share in respect of which the instrument was given if the transfer is not registered by the time at which the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is required to be deposited under Rule 8.9(j).
- (m) The appointment of a proxy or attorney is not revoked by the appointer attending and taking part in the general meeting but, if the appointer votes on any resolution, the proxy or attorney is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointer's proxy or attorney on the resolution.
- (n) A proxy form issued by the Company must allow for the insertion of the name of the person to be primarily appointed as proxy and may provide that, in such circumstances and on such conditions specified in the form as are not inconsistent with this Constitution, the chairperson of the relevant meeting (or another person specified in the proxy form) is appointed as proxy.

8.10 Directors and Auditors

A Director is entitled to attend and speak at all general meetings. An Auditor is entitled to attend all general meetings and speak on any part of the business of the meetings that concerns them in their capacity as Auditor.

9. DIRECTORS

9.1 Appointment and removal of Directors

- (a) Subject to the Act and this Constitution, the Board will comprise up to eight (8) Directors. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating to the retirement of Directors:
 - (i) at least four (4) of the Directors must be Supplier Directors (inclusive of any TMI Supplier Directors, if applicable); and
 - (ii) during the TMI Merger Period, two (2) of the Directors must be TMI Supplier Directors.
- (b) The Directors in office on the date this Constitution becomes effective continue in office subject to this Constitution.
- (c) Subject to the Act and the requirement in Rule 9.1(a) for a minimum number of Supplier Directors, the Board may increase or reduce the number of Directors comprising the Board from time to time. The Board must not reduce the size of the Board under this Rule to less than the number of Directors in office at the time the reduction takes effect.
- (d) If a casual vacancy arises on the Board, it may be filled by the appointment of a new Director by resolution of:
 - (i) Members in general meeting; or
 - (ii) the Board.

A Director elected by resolution of the Members under this Rule holds office for the same period that would have applied to the former Director whose position was filled had that former Director continued in office. A Director elected under this Rule by the Board holds office until the next annual general meeting.

(e) At each annual general meeting of the Company there must be an election of Directors. The Director or Directors who must retire from office (but are eligible to stand for re-election) at the annual general meeting are as follows:

- (i) each Director who, if they do not retire from office at that annual general meeting, would hold office past the third annual general meeting following the later of the Director's appointment and last re-election;
- (ii) each Director who was appointed by the Board under Rule 9.1(d)(ii); and
- (iii) if no Director comes within paragraphs (i) or (ii), the Director who has served office longest without re-election. If there are two (2) or more such Directors who have been in office an equal length of time, then in default of agreement, the Director to retire will be determined by lot.

If there is only one Managing Director, that Managing Director is exempt from retirement by rotation under this Rule. If there is more than one Managing Director, the Managing Director nominated by the Board is exempt from retirement by rotation under this Rule. Alternate Directors are also exempt from this Rule.

(f) Members in general meeting may:

- (i) by resolution in accordance with section 203D of the Act remove a Director from office; and
- (ii) by resolution fill the office vacated by electing another person who satisfies the qualifications applicable to the former Director who was removed from office.

A person elected as a Director under this Rule holds office for the same period as would have applied to the former Director whose position was filled if that former Director had continued in office.

(g) A person, other than:

- (i) a Director retiring from office and standing for re-election; or
- (ii) a person appointed or recommended for appointment by the Board, is not eligible to be appointed as a Director at a general meeting of the Company unless a nomination for the election of the person as a Director signed by a Member and a consent to act as a Director signed by the person is given to the Company at least 35 Business Days before the meeting (or, in the case of a meeting that Members have requested the Board to call in accordance with the Act, 30 Business Days before the meeting).

9.2 Vacation of office

In addition to the circumstances prescribed by the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

- (a) becomes of unsound mind or a person who is, or whose estate is, liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;

- (b) becomes bankrupt or insolvent or makes any arrangement or composition with his or her creditors generally;
- (c) is convicted of a felony and the Directors do not within one (1) month of that conviction resolve to confirm the Director's appointment or election (as the case may be) to the office of Director;
- (d) fails to attend meetings of the Directors for more than three (3) consecutive months without leave of absence from the Directors;
- (e) resigns by notice in writing to the Company; or
- (f) ceases to satisfy the qualification requirements on which the Director was elected and the Directors do not resolve to permit the Director to continue in office at or before the next meeting of Directors after written notice of the cessation has been given to the Directors by the secretary.

9.3 Remuneration of Directors

- (a) The Directors are entitled to be remunerated for their services as Directors as follows:
 - (i) the amount of the remuneration of the Directors is a yearly sum not exceeding $900,000, or such other amount as is determined from time to time by the Company in general meeting. (The notice convening the meeting must include the proposal to increase the Directors' remuneration and specify both the amount of the increase and the new yearly sum proposed for determination);
 - (ii) the amount of the remuneration of the Directors is to be divided among them in the proportion and manner they agree or, in default of agreement, among them equally;
 - (iii) the remuneration is to be provided wholly in cash unless the Directors, with the agreement of the Director concerned, determine that part is to be satisfied in the form of non-cash benefits, including the issue or purchase of Shares in the Company or the grant of options to subscribe for Shares;
 - (iv) in making a determination under paragraph (iii), the Directors may fix the value of any non-cash benefit;
 - (v) the Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day, except for any non-cash benefit which is taken to accrue from the time the benefit is provided, subject to the terms on which the benefit is provided.
- (b) The notice of a general meeting at which an increase in the maximum aggregate yearly sum under Rule 9.3(a)(i) is proposed must specify both the amount of the increase and the new yearly sum proposed.
- (c) In addition to their remuneration, the Directors are entitled to be paid all travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the affairs of the Company, including attending and returning from general meetings of the Company or meetings of the Directors or of committees of the Directors.
- (d) A Director who renders or is called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in connection with the affairs of the Company, may be paid extra remuneration as determined by the Board.

- (e) Rule 9.3(a) does not restrict the remuneration to which a Director may be entitled in a capacity other than that of a Director, including any remuneration as an employee, which may be either in addition to or in substitution for the Director's remuneration under Rule 9.3(a).
- (f) Subject to the Act, the Directors may:
 - (i) at any time after a Director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office as a Director, pay to the Director or a legal personal representative, spouse, relative or dependant of the Director, in addition to the remuneration of that Director, a pension or lump sum payment in respect of past services rendered by that Director; and
 - (ii) cause the Company to enter into a contract with the Director for the purpose of providing for or giving effect to such a payment.
- (g) The Directors may establish or support, or assist in the establishment or support of, funds and trusts to provide pension, retirement, superannuation or similar payments or benefits to or in respect of the Directors or former Directors.

9.4 Interested Directors

- (a) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit (other than Auditor) in the Company or any related body corporate in conjunction with his or her position as Director and may be appointed to that office or place upon such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as the Board determines.
- (b) A Director of the Company may be or become a director or other officer of, or otherwise interested in, any related body corporate or any other body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise and is not accountable to the Company for any remuneration benefits received by the Director as a director or officer of, or from having an interest in, that body corporate.
- (c) The Directors may exercise the voting rights conferred by any share in any body corporate held or owned by the Company in such manner in all respects as the directors think fit (including voting in favour of any resolution appointing a Director as a Director or other officer of that body corporate or voting for the payment of remuneration to the directors or other officers of that body corporate) and a Director may, if permitted by law, vote in favour of the exercise of those voting rights notwithstanding that he or she is, or may be about to be appointed, a director or other officer of that other body corporate and, as such, interested in the exercise of those voting rights.
- (d) A Director is not disqualified, merely because of being a Director, from contracting with the Company in any respect including, without limitation:
 - (i) supplying milk to the Company;
 - (ii) selling any property or goods to, or purchasing any property or goods from, the Company;
 - (iii) lending any money to, or borrowing any money from, the Company with or without interest and with or without security;
 - (iv) guaranteeing the repayment of any money borrowed by the Company for a commission or profit;

- (v) underwriting or guaranteeing the subscription for securities in the Company or in any related body corporate or any other body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as a Member or otherwise, for a commission or profit; or
 - (vi) being employed by the Company or acting in any professional capacity (other than Auditor) on behalf of the Company.
- (e) No contract made by a Director with the Company and no contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director may be in any way interested is avoided or rendered voidable merely because of the Director holding office as a Director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising out of that office.
 - (f) No Director contracting with or being interested in any arrangement involving the Company is liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by or under any such contract or arrangement merely because of the Director holding office as a Director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising out of that office.
 - (g) Subject to Rule 9.4(h), a Director who is in any way interested in any contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement may, despite that interest:
 - (i) be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any meeting of Directors considering that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement;
 - (ii) sign or countersign any document relating to that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement; and
 - (iii) vote in respect of, or in respect of any matter arising out of, the contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement.
 - (h) The provisions of Rule 9.4(g) do not apply if, and to the extent that, they would be contrary to the Act.
 - (i) The Directors may make regulations requiring the disclosure of interests that a Director, and any person deemed by the Directors to be related to or associated with the Director, may have in any matter concerning the Company or a related body corporate and any regulations made under this Rule will bind all Directors.

9.5 Powers and duties of Directors

- (a) The Directors are responsible for managing the business of the Company and may exercise, to the exclusion of the Company in general meeting, all the powers of the Company which are not required, by the Act or this Constitution, to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.
- (b) Without limiting the generality of Rule 9.5(a), the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or otherwise raise money, to charge any property or business of the Company or all or any of its uncalled capital and to issue debentures or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

- (b) A Directors' meeting may be called or held using any technology consented to by all the Directors. The consent may be a standing one. A Director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.
- (c) The contemporaneous linking together by technology of a number of the Directors sufficient to constitute a quorum, constitutes a meeting of the Directors and all the provisions in this Constitution relating to meetings of the Directors apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to meetings of the Directors by technology.
- (d) A Director participating in a meeting by technology is to be taken to be present in person at the meeting.

- (e) A meeting by technology is to be taken to be held at the place determined by the chairperson of the meeting provided that at least one (1) of the Directors involved was at that place for the duration of the meeting.

 - (i) forming part of the undivided profits of the Company;

- (ii) representing profits arising from an ascertained accretion to capital or from a revaluation of the assets of the Company;

12.5 Carry forward of profits

The Directors may carry forward so much of the profits remaining as they consider ought not to be distributed as dividends or capitalised without transferring those profits to a reserve or provision.
